In House Dancer Terms & Conditions (T&C)

Welcome to The Wolves Dance Academy

Founded in 2022 and located in Setapak, Kuala Lumpur, The Wolves Dance Academy has quickly risen as a passionate and dynamic dance institution. We embody a spirit of discipline, creativity, and breakthrough, and are proud to have received multiple awards in regional and national competitions thanks to our strong educational vision and team culture.

We stand by the belief that: “The strength of the wolf is the pack, and the strength of the pack is the wolf.” Our mission is to nurture every dancer’s individual potential while fostering unity and team spirit. We strive to create a supportive environment where growth and collaboration go hand in hand.

Whether you dance for passion, competition, or pure joy, The Wolves Dance Academy is here to guide and support you. Every member is an essential part of the pack.

1. Definition of In House Member

Becoming an In House Dancer at The Wolves Dance Academy means more than being a student — it means you're a key part of the "pack."

The In House program signifies commitment, responsibility, and growth. We expect every member to consistently improve in dance technique, teamwork, and performance, while upholding our academy’s professional standards and culture. All members are expected to uphold values of humbleness, care, trust, openness, respect, responsibility, and teamwork.

2. Fees & Payment Policy

Annual & Monthly Fees

- In House Registration Fee: RM120 (once per year, due in January)
- Monthly Fee: RM80 (due by the 20th of each month)

Late Payment Policy

- Members who need to delay payment must formally inform the academy person-in-charge in writing in advance.
 - The person-in-charge will discuss the matter with the member and may grant a reasonable grace period.
 - Failure to make payment after the agreed deadline will result in a suspension of In-House membership status and all associated benefits.
 - If a member does not participate in any academy activities, rehearsals, classes, or sharing sessions within the month, they may apply for a fee waiver for that month.
 - If the member only participates in Sharing Sessions, the monthly fee remains RM80.

3. Class Add-on Packages & Deposit

In House members may purchase additional class packages on top of the RM80 monthly fee:

Add-on Package Options

Package	Monthly Fee	Class Fee	Deposit	Total	Included

Package A	RM80	RM50	-	RM130	+4 Class Passes
Package B	RM80	RM100	-	RM180	+8 Class Passes

Terms & Conditions

- Classes are limited to regular academy courses only, and do not include Sharing Sessions, special workshops, or invited guest classes.
 - All purchased classes must be utilized within the same calendar month; unused classes cannot be carried forward to the following month.
 - To pause or withdraw from classes, members must provide at least one (1) month's prior notice.
 - Failure to give timely notice will result in the regular monthly fee being charged as usual, regardless of attendance.

4. Discontinuation & Rejoining

- To discontinue In House participation, members must give at least one month's written notice to the Academy person-in-charge
 - To rejoin the program later, a new registration fee of RM120 is required

5. Studio Usage & Responsibility

7. Team & Meetings System

- Each team shall appoint two (2) representatives, elected by team members annually, to oversee internal communication and administrative coordination.
 - Quarterly meetings will be held, including representatives Meeting (attended by team reps and instructors only) and full team Meeting (attended by all members)
 - Meeting agendas will cover academy and team progress, quarterly objectives, member feedback, and internal evaluations.
 - All team decisions shall be made through a voting mechanism, following the principle of majority rule.
 - Once a decision is finalized, it shall be regarded as a collective responsibility, with all members jointly bearing the positive and negative outcomes.

8. Attendance & Discipline

Team Practice

- Members are responsible for self-organizing team practice schedules; the academy does not enforce a minimum attendance rate for these practices.
- Coaches will periodically observe team progress and provide feedback to support improvement and development.

Sharing Session Attendance

- All members are required to attend at least one (1) Sharing Session per month (each session 1.5 hours or longer).
 - If a member is unable to meet the minimum attendance due to special circumstances, they must inform the team representative or academy person-in-charge in advance and provide a valid reason.
 - Failure to attend without prior notice or a reasonable explanation will result in the incident being recorded and a formal reminder issued.
 - In serious or repeated cases, the member's In-House status may be subject to review.

9. Commercial Performances & Casting Policy

The Wolves Dance Academy occasionally accepts external commercial performance projects (e.g. corporate shows, brand events, product launches, etc.).

Casting & Selection

- Participation in commercial performances is not automatically guaranteed for all In House members.
- The Academy reserves full rights to determine the lineup of performers based on suitability, skill level, attitude, team contribution, reliability, and artistic direction.
- The Academy may invite non-In House dancers or instructors for specific roles if needed.
- All commercial performance fees, logistics, and communication will be managed solely by the Academy.

Performance Conduct

- Selected performers must attend rehearsals punctually, maintain professional conduct, and positively represent the Academy.
- Any misconduct or repeated absence may result in removal from the project or exclusion from future opportunities.

Self-Secured Performance Projects

- If an In-House member independently secures a performance opportunity (e.g. commercial show, video appearance, brand collaboration), they must submit the project details to the Academy.
 - The Academy will handle all communication and coordination with the client in a professional manner to ensure clarity, fairness, and brand consistency.
 - The member will receive a reasonable performance fee share based on the project nature and budget.

10. External Projects & In House Commitment

- The academy encourages members to participate in external dance projects to broaden their experience and exposure.
- However, members are expected to maintain a balanced commitment to their In-House team responsibilities.
- During competition rehearsals or major academy events, In-House activities will take priority.
- If a member repeatedly neglects team commitments due to external engagements, the academy reserves the right to conduct a formal discussion and re-evaluate the member's In-House status.

External Engagement Notification Protocol

- All In-House members must inform their team coach before engaging in any external collaborations (e.g. performances, shoots, or training).
- The coach will then relay the information to the Academy person-in-charge.
- This procedure is not intended to restrict members, but to ensure proper resource coordination and protect the Academy's team integrity and image.

Failure to Notify – Disciplinary Action

If a member is found to have participated in an external project without prior notice, the Academy may issue a verbal reminder or a formal warning, depending on the situation.

Repeated offenses or serious breaches may result in suspension of In-House privileges or termination of In-House membership.

11. Guest Dancer Policy

If a team invites a non-In House dancer to join rehearsals, the following rules apply:

Condition	Fee	Permission
Guest Dancer	Rm10 per session	Rehearsals only; no access to In House benefits
Private Usage	Standard studio rental rate	Must be approved by Academy person-in-charge

Guest Dancers must be approved in advance by team and academy person-in-charge before entering the studio.

12. Disclaimer & Code of Conduct

- Members who consistently fail to pay fees, skip responsibilities, or violate rules may have their In House status suspended or revoked
 - All members must respect studio rules, maintain cleanliness, and promote a positive and disciplined team environment
 - This In-House Agreement and all related policies are strictly confidential and for internal use only. Members are prohibited from sharing, disclosing, copying, or forwarding any part of this agreement to external parties in any form (including verbally, screenshots, or documents). Any unauthorized disclosure will result in immediate termination of the member's In-House status and forfeiture of all related benefits. This confidentiality obligation remains valid even after the member has left the In-House program.
